Welcome

Mental Health and Wellbeing

- Mental health and wellbeing sweet packs

The school council reps liked the pack. Lilly stated that the packs were a nice treat. Hunter stated that he had not received one. Mrs Levers explained that they had to be collected with the home learning packs but she would organise one for him.

- Positivity tags

Mrs Levers shared the school newsletter and explained the positivity tag. Mrs Levers asked the school council reps what positive message or notes of thanks they might create. Aisla stated that she would thank her mum for all her hard work,

- What makes you happy video

Mrs Levers explained that over half term children will be asked to record a video or send in photos doing things that make them happy. Mrs Levers asked the children what makes them happy. Hunter 'sleeping', Hollie 'dancing'

- Feelings about returning to school

Aisla – that more children would be attending and they may have forgotten the school rules and how to play nicely.

Mrs Levers – the school council could promote the behaviour policy and school values

Lilly – Spread of COVID making people ill.

Mrs Levers – teachers are being tested 2 x per week and the school council could help children to remember to apply the risk assessment

Home learning and In School Curriculum

- What is going well?

Lessons through Zoom are clear and enjoyable

3 lessons per day is enough

The home learning and in school packages are very similar so children at home are not 'missing out'

- What could be improved?

Reduction in the 'time gap' between each Zoom lesson
