Children in Need

Friday 18th November was Children In Need. The children came to school looking SPOTacular for the day. We enjoyed taking part in an interactive, dynamic and imaginative live mood-booster live session where the children had fun whilst boosting their moods. Well done to those children who won 'best dressed' for their ever so creative costumes.

During the summer, Freddie in Y1 was invited to the Leeds leg of PE with Joe Tour, at Harewood House. He took part in a Live workout with Joe and had a Q&A. Freddie also played lots of Children in Need themed games to win prizes and raise money for Children in Need. Freddie was lucky enough to meet Pudsey and Joe Wicks.

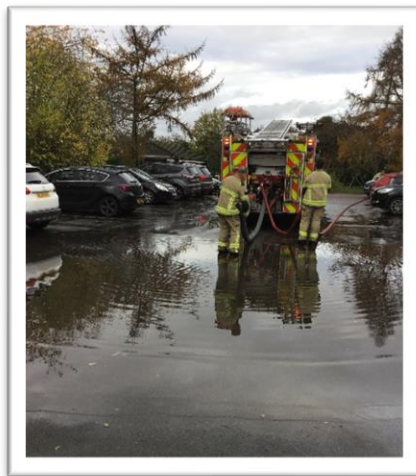

Anti-Bullying Week

This week has been Anti-Bullying week, an annual event coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance, which aims to raise awareness of bullying and highlight ways of preventing and responding to it. The theme this year is 'Reach Out'. As a school we have taken part in Odd Socks Day on Monday, tuned into a live lesson with the Anti-Bullying Alliance, and we have enjoyed participating in lunchtime workshops creating our very own odd sock puppets.

Thank you

A big thank you to Thorne Fire Service for coming out to help with the flood in the car park. We repaid them with cups of tea and chocolate crunch.

Nursery Rhyme Week

This week it has been Nursery Rhyme Week. On Monday, the EYFS children dressed up as their favourite nursery rhyme character, they looked amazing. Throughout the week, the children have enjoyed learning new nursery rhymes and taking part in nursery rhyme activities.

Reading at home

We continue to have a big push on home reading. A HUGE well done to all those children this week who read with an adult at home three or more times this week – we hope you enjoyed your treat! We are seeing more and more children reading at home each week, which is FANTASTIC! We REALLY need EVERY child in school to be reading with an adult at home three or more times a week. Once you have read with your child, please make sure that you sign your child's reading diary. Keep up the good work everyone.

Breakfast Club

For all those families who attend Breakfast Club, please note that the children must enter through the main office from Monday and not the side of the hall.
