Weekly News

Welcome back everyone! We hope you have had a wonderful summer holiday, spending quality family time together and enjoying a well-deserved break.

We have missed all the children and are glad to be back doing what we love - teaching your children. A big hello to all the new families that have joined us, we are excited to get to know you all further.

We started the week talking about new beginnings and the exciting things to expect throughout the year.

The staff have spoken SO highly about all of their new classes. Well done children for starting the new school year so well, everyone looks so smart and eager to learn.

Autumn 1 After School Activities

There are lots of afterschool clubs and activities taking place this half term, click the following link to see what is on offer. Places can be booked through the school office, all clubs will start next week.
